About the Messenger.....	23

But sometimes the noise of the season simply overwhelms – and we long to hear that still small voice, the cooing of the Christ child in the manger.

God's gift of salvation and grace comes to us quietly in a small, rural town on the outskirts of Big City Jerusalem. Set apart from the pomp and circumstance of temple trappings, the Madonna rubs her belly, muses and marvels at what's soon to come.

Surely all will call her blessed, for she carries within her the Blessing of nations and the Hope of the world.

Don't let the sounds of the season overwhelm you this year. Give yourself the gift of contemplation in this season of Advent; prepare to receive Your King anew this Christmas.

Doing so will not only be a gift for you, it will overflow through you into the lives of others...

“Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; For His loving kindness is everlasting.”

Gratefully and Joyfully,

Pastor Derek

People Helping People !

An experience by congregation member – Our member was driving home from work when he stopped at a traffic light. And he saw an older gentleman in a wheelchair who looked as though he could do well with one of our people helping people food bags. Our member unwind is car window and asked the gentleman if he would like some food. The older man smiled said yes and came forward. He had a wide and happy smile on his face and was grateful saying that he could use with the food and water. He eyes shone with happiness as he went away.

Most of us have seen people with signs, standing on the medians at many intersections. After worship, many of you have taken a bag or two to take with you to assist those in need. Included in each bag is nutritious food, as well as a prayer for blessing.

Come join us as we serve those in need in practical ways. As we do so, we're living into our ILC vision of "passionate responding to grace we've received by joyfully serving others in the name of Jesus."

Special Note: Midtown Family Services, an organization started by our own Ted & Doreen Geiszler, to assist disadvantaged families in the Silicon Valley, liked our PHP concept – and they'll be using our bags in the work that they do. (Go to www.midtownfs.org for more information about Midtown.)

Children's Story

On Santa's Team

My grandma taught me everything about Christmas. I was just a kid. I remember tearing across town on my bike to visit her on the day my big sister dropped the bomb: "There is no Santa Claus," jeered my sister. "Even dummies know that!"

My grandma was not the gushy kind, never had been. I fled to her that day because I knew she would be straight with me. I knew Grandma always told the truth, and I knew that the truth always went down a whole lot easier when swallowed with one of her world-famous cinnamon buns.

Grandma was home, and the buns were still warm. Between bites, I told her everything. She was ready for me.

"No Santa Claus!" she snorted. "Ridiculous! Don't believe it. That rumor has been going around for years, and it makes me mad, plain mad. Now, put on your coat, and let's go."

"Go? Go where, Grandma?" I asked. I hadn't even finished my second cinnamon bun.

"Where" turned out to be Kerby's General Store, the one store in town that had a little bit of just about everything. As we walked through its doors, Grandma handed me ten dollars. That was a bundle in those days.

"Take this money," she said, "and buy something for someone who needs it. I'll wait for you in the car." Then she turned and walked out of Kerby's.

I was only eight years old. I'd often gone shopping with my mother, but never had I shopped for anything all by myself. The store seemed big and crowded, full of people scrambling to finish their Christmas shopping. For a few moments I just stood there, confused, clutching that ten-dollar bill, wondering what to buy, and who on earth to buy it for. I thought of everybody I knew: my family, my friends, my neighbors, the kids at school, the people who went to my church.

I was just about thought out, when I suddenly thought of Bobbie Decker. He was a kid with bad breath and messy hair, and he sat right behind me in Mrs. Pollock's grade-two class. Bobbie Decker didn't have a coat. I knew that because he never went out for recess during the winter. His mother always wrote a note, telling the teacher that he had a cough; but all we kids knew that Bobbie Decker didn't have a cough, and he didn't have a coat.

I fingered the ten-dollar bill with growing excitement. I would buy Bobbie Decker a coat. I settled on a red corduroy one that had a hood to it. It looked really warm, and he would like that. I didn't see a price tag, but ten dollars ought to buy anything. I put the coat and my ten-dollar bill on the counter and pushed them toward the lady behind it.

She looked at the coat, the money, and me. "Is this a Christmas present for someone?" she asked kindly. "Yes," I replied shyly. "It's ... for Bobbie. He's in my class, and he doesn't have a coat." The nice lady smiled at me. I didn't get any change, but she put the coat in a bag and wished me a Merry Christmas.

That evening, Grandma helped me wrap the coat in Christmas paper and ribbons, and write, "To Bobbie, From Santa Claus" on it ... Grandma said that Santa always insisted on secrecy. Then she drove me over to Bobbie Decker's house, explaining as we went that I was now and forever officially one of Santa's helpers. Grandma parked down the street from Bobbie's house, and she and I crept noiselessly and hid in the bushes by his front walk.

Suddenly, Grandma gave me a nudge. "All right, Santa Claus," she whispered, "get going."

I took a deep breath, dashed for his front door, threw the present down on his step, pounded his doorbell twice and flew back to the safety of the bushes and Grandma. Together we waited breathlessly in the darkness for the front door to open. Finally it did, and there stood Bobbie. He looked down, looked around, picked up his present, took it inside and closed the door.

Forty years haven't dimmed the thrill of those moments spent shivering, beside my grandma, in Bobbie Decker's bushes. That night, I realized that those awful rumors about Santa Claus were just what Grandma said they were: Ridiculous!

Santa was alive and well ... AND WE WERE ON HIS TEAM!

Altar Guild

ILC Members

If you'll recall, last fall in a communication to church members from Charley Eddy, a solicitation was made to pledge not only financially but also with your talents. We've all been blessed with unique gifts, and I'd like to encourage each of you to consider how you can help at ILC. There are many ways you can be of service each week, but I'd like to focus on Altar Guild.

Serving on the Altar Guild team is very important, and I would like to ask you to please give prayerful consideration to help as you are able. The number of us that are active in Altar Guild has dwindled and we could really use more participation to lighten the load. Training is available if you're new to the Altar Guild team or need a refresher course, and detailed instructions and photos are posted to help you.

Each week, 2-3 Altar Guild members help serve. We need 2 Altar Guild volunteers on Saturday mornings to prepare the sanctuary for worship and set up for communion, and then on Sunday do light duties for whichever service you normally attend.

I understand there's some confusion surrounding the online sign-ups for Altar Guild (see the link below). Please note that, by signing up under 9:00, it indicates you'll help with Saturday prep in addition to some light duties on Sunday (at either the 9:00 service or the 10:45 service). Those attending Second service are welcome (and encouraged) to assist on Saturdays.

The greatest need on an on-going basis is Saturday morning when two volunteers meet to prep for communion and set up for Sunday's service, which takes about one hour or less. You'd be partnered with an experienced Altar Guild member to help train you. To indicate you can help with this, please sign up under 9:00 Service for Altar Guild.

Again, you do NOT both need to attend First Service if you normally attend Second Service to help on Saturday...just sign up under 9:00 Altar Guild AND 10:45 Altar Guild to indicate you'll help Saturday and clean-up after second service.

Attached here is the 2018 VOLUNTEER LINK To SIGN UP (<https://signup.com/client/invitation2/secure/2105067/false#/invitation>). It's easy! There are many opportunities each Sunday for you to share your talents. If you need assistance signing up, please contact Ann Wallace, our church administrator (408-867-0822).

For questions, or to arrange to be trained for Altar Guild, please contact Cheryl Sheehan at 408-768-3022. Please give consideration to being on the Altar Guild team. We can really use your help...plus, it's a fun opportunity to make new friends and visit with your partner on Saturday mornings while you're serving ILC!

Blessings to all of you!

Maturity – promotes the education of children and adults at ILC. Volunteers are needed to assist educating youth during the second service Sunday School hour. In preschool, fun activities with the 3-5 year-olds; in elementary, from 1st to 5th grade, two volunteers to instruct the kids with Bible stories, crafts and games.

Volunteers are also needed to teach the 6th through 8th graders in a rotating schedule with the Youth Ministry Leader, Alyssa McCoy. Meetings are minimal. Bible study materials for the elementary grades are distributed via email. Contact Mitzie Eddy 408-656-7025 or mitzeddy@gmail.com

Church Council: Council acts as the executive team of the congregation and approves budgets and expenditures, prioritizes facilities projects, makes and approves key personnel decisions, and sets strategic direction for ILC. Current focus areas are increasing attendance and membership, prudent financial planning, and redistributing and reducing the congregation's work-load. Council meets at 7pm on the second Tuesday of each month in the Fireside Room. All congregants are welcome at any time.

Youth Handbell Choir

Hopefully you had a chance to see and hear the Youth Handbell Choir perform in church. For our 1st year we had 6-7 ringers and performed in church on 4 Sundays. Based on feedback from you youth and the congregation, our inaugural year was a success!

We are continuing with the Youth Handbell Choir this year and are hoping to grow in numbers. With more ringers, we will have more options in the music that we can play. The Youth Handbell Choir rehearses on Sundays in between 2nd service and Confirmation classes – from 11:45 to 12:30. All youth 10 years and older are welcome to join us.

Don't know much about music? Well, Handbells are a great vehicle for teaching music. Individuals can very quickly learn the technique for ringing bells compared to other instruments that require a lot of practice to master the technique. With Handbells, we can quickly demonstrate so many elements of music (melody, harmony, rhythm, dynamics, meter, ...)

Another very important reason to join the Youth Handbell Choir is for the teamwork and comradery. In a Handbell Choir, ALL are needed. The music struggles if even one part is missing. This is a place where all individuals can feel needed and be a part of a team to make music and praise God. The Handbell Choir mirrors the body of Christ. Roman 12:5 says: "so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others."

In the Handbell Choir, we are all separate ringers doing our own thing and yet we're interconnected and need each other to come together to make a joyful noise to God.

It reinforces the idea that you need to work together to achieve something great. In a Handbell team, success comes by including everyone and building up the individuals that struggle.

Please contact Carol Flint or Elisabeth Pintar if you are interested in joining us. Our first rehearsal will be on Sunday Sept 23 immediately after 2nd service ~11:45. Even if you are not sure, come try it out!

Also, Handbells are not just for kids. We could use a few more ringers in the adult Handbell Choir too. Those rehearsals are on Thursday evenings 6:00 – 7:00.

THE JESSE TREE

The bare tree that you see in the narthex is Immanuel's "Jesse Tree" which appears each year towards the end of November. Be sure to take a tag off the tree and, when doing your Christmas shopping, purchase a gift for the 6 to 12 year-old boy or girl, according to the tag, and place the unwrapped Christmas gift under the "Jesse Tree". Please write boy or girl and approximate age on the gift tag or tape the tag to the package before bringing your gift on or before December 9th. Gift suggestion sheets are under the Jesse Tree.

All gifts will be collected and delivered to Gloria Dei Lutheran's Lord's Pantry on December 10th for collection for distribution to families needing help and who are registered there.

ADOPT-A-FAMILY FOR CHRISTMAS - 2018

The Community Service Committee has received the name of a family from Family Supportive Housing for ILC's Christmas Time Family Adoption. This year we have a family of four headed by Ray and Lisa with two children, Aylah, 9 years old, and Scott, 8 years old. This family has been through FSH's emergency shelter program, worked with case workers and has graduated into FSH's Transitional Housing Program which is on-site. By purchasing Christmas presents for this family, we hope to make Christmas a time of celebration for this hard working family.

A Christmas Gift Board showing the names and gift suggestions for each member is on the table in the Narthex and tags are under each name, along with a sheet showing all of the information for each family member. So please take a tag and return your unwrapped children's gifts with a tag on it to church no later than Sunday, December 9th. FSH has specifically asked that the gifts for the CHILDREN BE UNWRAPPED so that the parents know what the children are given and that they can then wrap the gifts themselves at a wrapping party at the center. Gifts for the ADULTS SHOULD BE WRAPPED with a tag showing the name of the giftee. FSH suggests gifts in the $10.00 to $30.00 range and will distribute them shortly before Christmas to the family.

Knowing that people in the community are thinking and praying for them helps these families make their way back and lets them know that they are not alone. By sharing your Christmas with this family, you are helping them on the road to recovery. Have a merry and blessed Christmas!

The joy of brightening other lives, bearing each others' burdens, easing other's loads and supplanting empty hearts and lives with generous gifts becomes for us

the Magic of Christmas.
