From our webmaster/videographer, Aart Bik:

Dear brothers and sisters, beginning April 11, we will begin offering weekly in-person services again! This also means we will stop pre-recording the Sunday services as the Pastor, the musical team, and I look back to a very special year together adapting to the sheltering-in-place time. However, the good news is that the on-line ministry will continue! Starting April 11, we will begin livestreaming our Sunday services directly to YouTube for those that can't attend in-person. If you want to watch real-time, the easiest way is to go to the new ILC livestream webpage (<https://ilcsaratoga.org/live.php>) where you will find the next scheduled livestream. A few minutes before the service, simply click "play" and you will see a countdown timer and the video will play as soon as our livestream starts. Alternatively, you can go directly to the ILC YouTube channel (<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXPyEHJ9h9cmNxPpnLm-vw/live>) and play from there. Please make sure to subscribe to the ILC channel to get notified about new videos and livestreams (and reaching 100 subscribers will give our channel some extra perks back in return). During the service, there will also be a live chat feature so you can converse with others in real-time about the service. If you missed the real-time livestream, no worries, the recording will remain available on our channel afterwards (but slightly less polished than you have gotten used to in the past year). If you have any questions on the livestream or need help connecting, please reach out to me directly (aartbik@gmail.com). Also, please be patient while we adapt to this new way of broadcasting. Configuring all parameters of our new IP camera for optimal viewing will take a learning curve. Looking forward to seeing you online!

vaccinated – out of concern for others. For although they may not contract the virus themselves, they can nevertheless carry it and pass it on to others.

Jesus reiterated the longstanding “love your neighbor as yourself” command (Lev. 19:18), but He also added to it: “Love one another, as I have loved you” (John 13:34). The well-known inquiry, “What would Jesus do?” is a helpful question for any of us to ask when it comes to moral and ethical questions. Jesus always had others in mind, and if we are to follow in His steps, we are obliged to do the same.

The apostle counsels as much in the verse above. And to back it up, he immediately points to the example of our Lord, and he urges his readers to adopt the same attitude. This is the Christian spirit – to be cognizant of others and to be considerate in our interactions with them.

Our sinful human nature gets in the way and gets the best of us at times, and we tend to look out for number one. But the Spirit God has given us shows us a different and better way. He reminds us of the words and ways of Jesus, and He guides us in His righteous paths.

As we move forward, together, as God’s Church, let us take care to shine the light of Christ. God has called us to live in such a way that we will reflect His glory. We do not draw attention to ourselves, but to our Savior Jesus.

The world is listening attentively and watching carefully. God has entrusted us with Good News like no other. We need not be ashamed to bear witness to what we have discovered in Jesus. For He has given us the recipe for responsible living. And in so doing we will discover the fullness of love and joy. We will discover the fullness of life.

Partnering with you in the ministry and mission of our Lord.

Pastor Derek J Engfelt

People Helping People !

An experience by congregation member – 1. Man on the Median – Our member was driving and was about to make a left hand turn at Saratoga and Prospect/West Campbell Ave when he saw a man with a sign asking for food or money. Our member unwind his window and showed him the People Helping People clear bag so he could see what was inside. He then told the man" Our church, ILC, made the bags to help people. The man said that he could really use this and then that he and others lived under the bridge on Prospect Ave. near Lawrence and that he was also collecting food and money for them. Our member gave him two bags and he thanked him profusely and said God Bless.

2. Young man sagging by the Store: Our member was shopping at Trader Joes and on his way out saw a young man looking very dejected with a sign asking for food. He sat next to the young man and asked him what was wrong. He answered that he had been living at the shelter and that the other day all his belongs were stolen from the shelter, including his cheap cell phone. He said he needed this in order to get around and look for a job. Our member mentioned about the food packages and that our church ILC was always trying to help people. The young man said that was very special. Before saying goodbye, our member told the young man to try to keep his spirits up and to go back to the shelter. He said he was but was trying to get some food and money to get another phone. They talked about positivity and using all the gov't services available. The young took the two bags and he thanked our member profusely.

Helping anyone even if it is just a little means so much to people who literally have nothing. God's grace.

Come join us as we serve those in need in practical ways. As we do so, we're living into our ILC vision of "passionate responding to grace we've received by joyfully serving others in the name of Jesus."

Children's Story

Well! Well! Well!

One day, a farmer was looking for a water source for his farm when he bought a well from his neighbor. The neighbor, however, was cunning. The next day, as the farmer came to draw water from his well, the neighbor refused to let him take any water.

When the farmer asked why, the neighbor replied, "I sold you the well, not the water," and walked away. Distraught, the farmer went to the king to ask for justice. He explained what had happened.

The king called on Solomon, one of his nine and wisest courtiers. Solomon proceeded to question the neighbor, "Why don't you let the farmer take water from the well? You did sell the well to the farmer?"

The neighbor replied, "Solomon, I did sell the well to the farmer but not the water within it. He has no right to draw water from the well."

Solomon said, "Look since you sold the well, you have no right to keep the water in the farmer's well. Either you pay rent to the farmer or take it out immediately."

Realizing that his scheme had failed, the neighbor apologized and went home.

Youth Handbell Choir

Hopefully you had a chance to see and hear the Youth Handbell Choir perform in church. For our 1st year we had 6-7 ringers and performed in church on 4 Sundays. Based on feedback from you youth and the congregation, our inaugural year was a success!

We are continuing with the Youth Handbell Choir this year and are hoping to grow in numbers. With more ringers, we will have more options in the music that we can play. The Youth Handbell Choir rehearses on Sundays in between 2nd service and Confirmation classes – from 11:45 to 12:30. All youth 10 years and older are welcome to join us.

Don't know much about music? Well, Handbells are a great vehicle for teaching music. Individuals can very quickly learn the technique for ringing bells compared to other instruments that require a lot of practice to master the technique. With Handbells, we can quickly demonstrate so many elements of music (melody, harmony, rhythm, dynamics, meter, ...)

Another very important reason to join the Youth Handbell Choir is for the teamwork and comradery. In a Handbell Choir, ALL are needed. The music struggles if even one part is missing. This is a place where all individuals can feel needed and be a part of a team to make music and praise God. The Handbell Choir mirrors the body of Christ. Roman 12:5 says: "so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others." In the Handbell Choir, we are all separate ringers doing our own thing and yet we're interconnected and need each other to come together to make a joyful noise to God. It reinforces the idea that you need to work together to achieve something great. In a Handbell team, success comes by including everyone and building up the individuals that struggle.

Please contact Carol Flint or Elisabeth Pintar if you are interested in joining us

Also, Handbells are not just for kids. We could use a few more ringers in the adult Handbell Choir too. Those rehearsals are on Thursday evenings 6:00 – 7:00.
